'Momentous' project to help family's battle against rare illness

A HONITON family has become the first in the South West to take part in "ground-breaking" new DNA research, which could prove vital in the fight against rare health conditions.

Andrew and Sam Puleston, and their six-year-old son Noah, who has moderate to severe learning difficulties, are the focal point of a pioneering new research project at the RD&E in Exeter.

The innovative scheme could help the family finally get to the bottom of Noah's mysterious condition, which has baffled doctors for years.

The six-year-old has shown signs of delayed development from an early age, but his parents have long suspected that the condition is more complex than autism.

Now they have a chance to unlock the mystery with a much clearer diagnosis, thanks to the hospital's exciting new project – which scientists believe has the potential to "transform the future of healthcare."

"This is a really exciting day", said Sam Puleston.

"Not only for us as a family to find out more about Noah and what our genetics might mean for ourselves and our other children, but it's also exciting for what this project could mean for other people, because of the potential to discover new treatments."

The Pulestons gave samples of their DNA to specialists at the hospital's Research, Innovation, Learning and Development Centre (RILD) recently, after the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust was chosen to lead one of 11 state-of-the-art genomics medicine centres across the country.

Top scientists will look closely at Andrew and Sam's 'genomes', before comparing the DNA to Noah's.

Once they have a complete set of the family's genes, the RD&E team should then be able to pinpoint the cause of the six-year-old's learning difficulties.

Dr Charles Shaw-Smith, consultant clinical geneticist at the RD&E, said: "This is a really exciting day for Noah and his parents, but also for the parents of all children with undiagnosed genetic disorders.

"These parents have to go through a lot of distress in bringing up a child with special needs, and they often experience a deep amount of frustration.

"They can go from doctor to doctor and have test upon test to try to find a diagnosis for their child, and often the answer is 'we don't know'. This project is about trying to find the answers for those children."

The project involves collecting and sequencing 100,000 sets of genes donated by people across England, which will enable doctors to under-

SEATON

Tramway station plans to be revealed

THE designs for Seaton Tramway's new terminus will be officially revealed at an exhibition next week.

A new station is seen as an important part of the overall masterplan for Seaton, and the design will be on display in the Town Hall on Friday, May 8th.

Visitors to the exhibition will also be able to see the tramway's development over its 45-year history in Seaton and how the new station plans will complement Seaton Jurassic and the other development around it.

Representatives from Seaton Tramway and Ray Hole Architects will be on hand in Seaton Town Hall on May 8th from 12noon to 4pm to discuss any matter relating to the plans.

Everyone is welcome and refreshments will be provided throughout the day.

From the editor's chair There was only one FR

LIKE many hundreds of others from the sporting community in East Devon and South Somerset, I was saddened to hear of the death of Frank Huddy - gentleman cricketer, wonderful musician and raconteur.

I first met Frank when he ran the Double H entertainment agency in Chard when I was Regatta & Carnival secretary in Lyme Regis. I booked the Tony Graham Combo, for which he was the front man, for numerous dances.

But I got to know Frank better through local cricketing circles. Known affectionately as FR (his Christian name initials) he was club captain at Chardstock for many seasons in days before league cricket ruined the local game and village cricket was much to the fore.

Fixtures between Uplyme and Chardstock were always competitive but ultra-friendly, especially after the games when we would repair to the The George in Chardstock or Talbot Arms in Uplyme to buy jugs of beer for dropped catches and listen to Frank's cricketing tales. Whatever happened to those days?

Frank had a way with words, both spoken and written, and helped to pen a charming history of Chardstock Cricket Club when they celebrated their 100th anniversary in 1987.

In later years meeting Frank at various sporting dinners and occasions was always an enjoyable experience. He was a lovely man and will be greatly missed.

OTTERY ST MARY

King's cashes in on education grant

STAFF and students at The King's School in Ottery St Mary are set to benefit from a six-figure government grant, after taking the lead in an ambitious new project.

Education chiefs have agreed to fund the school's innovative "character building" programme, following a successful bid.

Almost £200,000 will be dished out to five East Devon schools, which were led by the team from King's during a lengthy application process.

The money is being used to pilot a new scheme, designed to create "inspirational opportunities" for students reaching the end of their school lives.

The innovative programme will focus on building students' resilience, leadership, curiosity and sense of community through a range of activities.

CREWKERNE

Town gives citizenship awards

DAVID Cuthbertson and Simon Colledge's efforts have won them a Crewkerne Citizenship Award 2015 each.

They received their certificates from the mayor, Robin Pailthorpe, during the annual town meeting on Monday, April 20th.

Introduced by the town council in 1997, the award is a way for Crewkerne to recognise those who have contributed most towards the benefit of the town and its citizens.

Mr Cuthbertson joined the RNLI in 1989 and went on to serve as chairman, he has been a church reader and also served other organisations in the community.

Mr Colledge has been a volunteer at the museum, a driver for Crewkerne Voluntary Transport, a member of A Better Crewkerne & District and more.

Steering group chairman Roger Gurner thanked everyone who had supported them throughout the past year.

Fairtrade is about ensuring that producers around the world receive a fair and guaranteed price for their produce at all times.

SEATON

Police disappointed with speeding cars

LOCAL police have said their decision to set up Community Speedwatch teams in Colyford and Seaton was justified, after more than 30 motorists were caught breaking the limit at Seaton Down Hill in just over an hour.

The volunteer Speed Watch groups were recently set up in the two communities to target with Colyton parish Council offering £250 in funding for the Colyford group, and Mayor of Colyford Howard West promising to raise a further £250 from local residents.

Community Speed Watch operates through a team of volunteers at the side of the road with a speed gun. Speeding vehicles' details are recorded and warning letters are sent to the vehicle owner together with educational information.

Fairtrade status first

ILMINSTER has become the first town in South Somerset to achieve Fairtrade Status.

The idea was first mooted in early 2014, after which the Ilminster Fairtrade Steering Group took charge, ably assisted by several local organisations.

Just over a year later, members of Ilminster Fairtrade Steering Group were delighted to present the official Fairtrade Town Status certificate to Ilminster mayor Emma Jane Taylor during the annual community assembly.

Steering group chairman Roger Gurner thanked everyone who had supported them throughout the past year.

Fairtrade is about ensuring that producers around the world receive a fair and guaranteed price for their produce at all times.

SOUTH SOMERSET Carnival clubs' float building site proposal

CARNIVAL clubs in South Somerset are discussing proposals to join forces to create a multi-purpose site for building their floats.

A number of local clubs are facing problems finding somewhere to build their amazing entries for the carnival season.

Now an attempt to improve the situation has been launched by local clubs and interested groups.

Members of the group will now examine the possibility of land, and financing options together with raising their public profile before the next meeting which is at the Shrubby Hotel on May 12th at 7:30pm.

College cashes in on education grant

by Jack Dixon

jack@pemedial.co.uk

STAFF and students at Honiton Community College are set to benefit from a six-figure government grant, after taking part in an ambitious new project.

Education chiefs have agreed to fund the school's innovative "character building" programme, following a successful bid.

Almost £200,000 will be dished out to five East Devon schools, including Honiton, after a lengthy application process.

The money is being used to pilot a new scheme, designed to create "inspirational opportunities" for students reaching the end of their school lives.

The college is set to build on its recent academic success by developing new activities to boost the aspirations of 14 to 18-year-olds as they move towards the world of work or higher education.

"This is a fabulous opportunity for our students," said principal Glenn Smith, after the funding was announced last week.

"But more importantly, I believe the project will enrich our whole community.

"Good or better emotional wellbeing is fundamental to success in education – and adult life – and this is a proactive initiative to ensure success for all remains our mission."

The King's School team from Ottery St Mary took the lead in delivering the bid, after forming a consortium with Honiton and three other East Devon schools last year.

A total of £193,784 has now been handed out, through the Department for Education's 'Character Education Grant' scheme.

The innovative programme will focus on building students' resilience, leadership, curiosity and sense of community through a range of activities.

Staff will be specially trained to provide mentoring and other forms of personal support, tailored towards volunteering, sport, outdoor education and enterprise.

A share of the money will be used to establish links with local businesses and organisations, including the Met Office and the University of Exeter.

The project also aims to offer particular support to those from disadvantaged backgrounds, who may need extra help developing their own emotional wellbeing and confidence.

Over 1,000 applications were submitted by a range of education institutions and businesses nationwide, with only 14 proving successful.

And the five East Devon colleges were the only schools in the country to benefit from a share of the £3.5 million handout.

Faith Jarrett, headteacher at The King's School, added: "The programme will help to develop students' future career aspirations, while giving us the chance to work on some of the schemes we have always had faith in. It's an amazing opportunity."

Libraries chief faces grilling over plans

DEVON County Council's libraries chief will face tough questions during a public meeting in Honiton this week.

Councillor Roger Croad, the authority's cabinet member for community and environment, will address the meeting at Honiton Library, before taking questions from the floor.

The event has been organised by Honiton Senior Voice, whose members are concerned about the impact of the council's cost-cutting plans on the library service.

Senior Voice member June Brown said: "Book groups are already having to pay to receive copies of books for discussion. What would happen when the council no longer runs our library? Would a charity or volunteers be able to provide the standard of service we currently get in the long term?"

Following a public consultation last spring, the council has selected 12 communities from across the county to take part in a pilot project to trial an alternative model for providing the service. It is unclear how Honiton will be affected by the changes, but the town's library is not at risk of permanent closure.

Chairman Vic Bowsher said: "The fairest way to address the various concerns raised is to hear the details of these plans from Councillor Croad, the cabinet member responsible."

The meeting, which takes place at the library on Thursday (April 30th) from 2pm, will be open to members of the public as well as library users.

stand more about rare diseases and cancer.

Leading professors have heralded the project as a "momentous" day in the field, putting the South West at the heart of global genomics research.

And scientists hope to establish England as a world leader in the fight against life-threatening and debilitating diseases.

Dr Rosie Benneyworth, Medical Director at the South West Academic Health Science Network, added: "The 100,000 Genomes Project has the potential to transform the future of healthcare.

"It could improve the prediction and prevention of disease, enable new and more precise diagnostic tests, and allow personalisation of drugs and other treatments to specific genetic variants.

"This project cannot succeed without people like Noah and his family, and we hope his decision to give samples of his DNA will not only benefit him but future generations."

Offwell to lose its village shop

AN EAST Devon village is set to lose its local shop and post point, after more than a decade at the heart of the community.

Residents in Offwell, near Honiton, will find themselves without the "vital" community amenity next month, due to a breakdown in discussions between the group that currently runs the shop and its landlord.

The Offwell Rural Services Association (ORSA) says it will be closing the shop at the end of May, having been unable to reach an agreement with its landlord over the siting of a new shop on the recreation ground alongside.

The disagreement means the organisation will stop trading after more than 11 years in the village.

Lynn Whithear, representing ORSA, said: "Despite overwhelming local support, ORSA finds that they are unable to sustain the service provided from the current site.

"Trading figures have been declining and efforts to provide a better and more up-to-date service from new premises have been to no avail."

The group says its attempts to move had been "thwarted" by the "intransigent attitude" of Sport England, which objected to the planning application for a new site.

ORSA also says it feels "let down" by East Devon District Council, which "has not been able to offer any real, practical support."

The group is now selling the unit used to run the shop and its contents, so that the site can be cleared by the end of June.

Lynn Whithear added: "ORSA would like to thank everyone for their custom over the years.

"The facility will be sorely missed."

Anyone interested in buying any of the remaining shop items is asked to call 01404 831121 and leave their contact details for ORSA to get in touch.

Full details of closing arrangements will be publicised nearer to the time.

HAPPY RETURNS | Fitness fanatics travelled back in time last week, as staff at the Honiton Leisure Centre tapped into the spirit of the Eighties.

The team marked the centre's 35th anniversary last week, with a series of sessions and classes following the theme of the decade.

Throughout April, LED staff have been encouraging visitors to try out group exercise classes set to music of the era.

And the team themselves turned up for work kitted out in Eighties clothing to mark the occasion last Tuesday.

Three of the Honiton centre's former leisure managers also called in to celebrate the event, cutting a special cake to recognise 35 years of fitness in the town.

Current Honiton manager Andy Mackie and area manager Andrew Dare (centre, left and right), welcomed former bosses Derek Robinson, Hazel Lilley and Simon Davey back to the centre, along with some of the existing team members.

Mr Dare said: "It was an ideal opportunity to show our former managers how much the centre has changed over the last 35 years."

Somerset council launches new advocacy service

A COUNTYWIDE, independent advocacy service has been set up by Somerset County Council to help adults speak up for themselves when it comes to their care and support.

The county council has previously provided four separate advocacy services for different types of advocacy.

The new countywide service, provided by SWAN Advocacy, means that all types of advocacy are available through a single point of contact.

It will offer personalised support and meet the requirements of the Care Act that came in to effect on April 1st.

A Spokesperson for Somerset County Council, said: "If anyone is finding it difficult to understand the care process or speak up for themselves, and there is no-one else to help, then the council must find an independent advocate who will help them say what they want to say."

"The new service will provide a single service that is accessible to everyone. SWAN Advocacy were selected to deliver the service because they offer advocates with specialist knowledge, skills and expertise to help people who are struggling to have a voice."

The new advocacy service will officially start in May.

To find out more, contact SWAN through www.swanadvocacy.org.uk, on 01722 341851 (before May 1st), www.somerset-ias.org.uk or call 0333 3447928 (after May 1st).

Tenants take the lead

RESIDENTS from across Somerset joined forces in Taunton last month to talk about the housing issues they face for the first ever conference of its kind.

The Somerset Tenant's Conference, organised by six housing associations and Taunton Deane Borough Council, brought like-minded social housing residents together to share ideas and discuss the things that were important to them in relation to housing.

Over 80 attendees were present which included staff from Yarlington Housing Group, Magna HA, Magna West, Knightstone, Stonewater and Alliance.

Jenny Osbourne, chief executive of the Tenant Participation Advisory Service (TPAS), who was one of the guest speakers on the day, recognised that things were harder for housing providers now there was less grant available to build new homes, but actively encouraged staff and residents to shout loudly about resident involvement.

After lunch, residents formed smaller groups to debate a number of hot topics such as scrutiny, communication and repairs.

The 'unconference' slot at the end of the day was led by tenants and gave them the chance to talk in more detail about the subjects that most interested them which included diversity, mystery shopping and working together.

Yarlington resident, Deborah Reynolds, said: "I was astounded by the new facts I learnt about social housing. It is fantastic to see housing associations working together to improve the situation for residents."

Ben Azariah, Yarlington's Resident Involvement do-ordinator, added: "It was great to share ideas with residents and staff from across other housing associations and hear attendees discuss matters of mutual concern."

"There was also great dialogue around the campaign for social housing - SHOUT (Social Housing Under Threat) and discuss how social housing can be kept at the top of the political agenda before the next general election and beyond."

"We are hoping that residents themselves will organise the next event after networking with one another today."

Town meeting an 'embarrassing experience'

ONLY one member of the public attended Honiton's annual town meeting at the Beehive last week.

A number of councillors have expressed their disappointment with the turnout at the meeting, where the mayor traditionally delivers his annual report and answers questions about the town council's work over the last 12 months.

Nine of the council's 16 current members attended the meeting last Monday evening, 11 of whom are seeking re-election next month.

Jill McNally, who is standing as a new candidate in the St Michael's ward, was the only non-councillor to attend.

She told Pulman's View it had been an 'embarrassing experience' for her.

by Jack Dixon

jack@pemedial.co.uk

"I'm disappointed and ashamed of our town council that only nine councillors were there and that I was the only member of the public that bothered to turn up," she said.

"I expected at least the other election candidates to have gone and listened to the report of the previous year. It was a non-event.

"It was quite an embarrassing experience but I think it was a reflection on how the town council is perceived by the public at the moment."

Mayor of Honiton, Peter Halse, said the council had been "working very hard" to improve the community during the year.

He highlighted the delivery of three new sports schemes for the town, as well as the first stage of improvements to play parks in Langford Road, Butts Close and Streamers Meadows.

Councillor Halse also praised the efforts of community members in reviving youth services and taking steps to establish Honiton as a dementia-friendly town.

"Many people are involved and work hard to run and support these groups, and I would like to thank each one on behalf of us for all that they do", he added.

He also took time to thank the volunteers at the Beehive for their "tireless" efforts, and said he had "every confidence" that the company directors would continue to do a "wonderful job of ensuring these facilities are available for all members of the community."

Mill Water 'improving rapidly' in new home

MILL Water School has officially opened its new £8 million building at Bicton College, after moving out of Honiton earlier this year, writes JACK DIXON.

Devon County Council chairman George Gribble formally opened the brand new building last week, following the school's relocation in January.

The development also includes a £1.5 million sports hall, available for pupils to use.

Based for many years on Honiton Bottom Road, the school has improved rapidly since being put into special measures following an Ofsted inspection in November 2013.

The school, which caters for 90 pupils with particular educational needs, was told it no longer required special measures earlier this term.

Inspectors say the quality of teaching has improved "significantly" since the move, and that the new building provides an "attractive and safe learning environment."

"Everyone at Mill Water is delighted that the move to our superb new school building coincided with the vote of confidence from Ofsted," said headteacher Sarah Pickering.

"We have a new school that is purpose-built to provide 21st century education and care for our children.

"The school is in a beautiful location adjoining a Grade I listed park and Grade II listed house, and the location is enabling partnership working between Mill Water and Bicton College for the mutual benefit of their pupils and students.

"We are all determined that Mill Water will provide an excellent education with high quality teaching, learning and care to match those facilities.

"But there is no room for complacency. This is just the first step on the road to giving our children the outstanding education and support that they deserve.

"We are more than happy with our fantastic new school."

The move has been 10 years in the planning and was finally completed when students began lessons at Bicton at the start of the spring term.

Devon County Council's Head of Education and Learning, Sue Clarke, added: "Mill Water caters for some of our most vulnerable students and it's important that we give them the best possible start in life.

"This new, state-of-the-art building will ensure that they have the best possible accommodation and facilities to complement the high quality teaching and care they already enjoy."

RAISING A GLASS | Staff and invited guests celebrated the opening of new and improved premises at the Honiton Chiropractic Centre with a champagne reception last week.

Professional chiropractor Richard Stenning (pictured, right) was joined by patient Pat Barrett and Conservative parliamentary candidate Neil Parish to cut the ribbon and open the centre's new treatment rooms and office.

Mr Stenning said the redesign would improve access for patients with mobility problems.

PEDAL POWER | A team of Honiton cyclists is preparing to embark on a 1,000-mile ride to raise vital funds for the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital.

Riders from the Otter Wheels cycling group will pedal all the way to Spain on May 7th, collecting cash for the hospital's Bramble children's ward.

Led by Lester Curnow, owner of The Otter Inn, the team will cross the channel before heading down through western France and arriving at their destination in Santander.

They hope to raise £10,000 to provide an outside play area for the young patients on the Bramble ward.

"We all agreed that we wanted to help Devon's children after spending nights in the Bramble ward with our own over the years", said Mr Curnow

"We thought it would be a great idea to contribute to their new outside play area, giving the children a decent place to get some fresh air and have fun – an important part of their recovery."

Callum's South American trek for cancer research

AXMOUTH resident Callum Elliott, 21, will take his fundraising effort to South America, writes ANDERS LARSSON.

The former Colyton Grammar School student is in the process of raising £3,000 for Worldwide Cancer Research (formerly AICR).

Callum, who is a pre-finalist studying music at Newcastle University, hopes to achieve this by trekking 2,430 metres up to 15th-century Inca site Machu Picchu in Peru.

He will be climbing in August as part of a 40-strong group from Newcastle University.

Callum raised £70 towards his total by performing at the recent Drewe Arms Beer Festival, ably supported by several ex-grammar school friends as well as the local villagers and festivalgoers.

He said: "It's always fun to play in such a lovely environment and the support I received was beyond generous."

"Thank you to all who came along. I still have a way to go before I reach my target though and will be setting up other activities both at uni and at home such as a supermarket bag pack, and an evening of cheese, wine and acoustic music."

On top of this, Callum will be shaving his beard off in the summer, leaving only his moustache to keep him company on the Inca Trail.

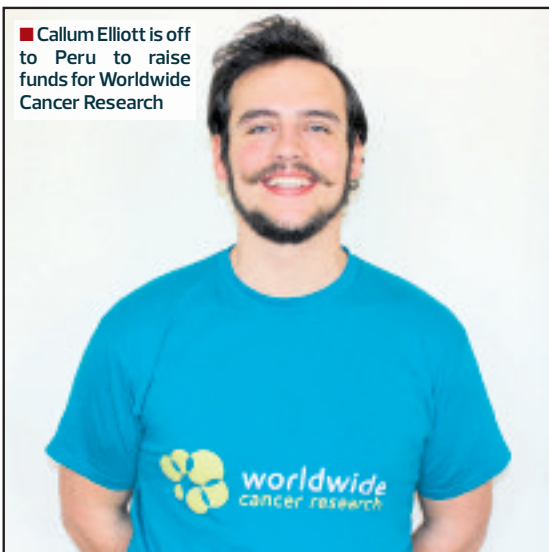

He added: "I'm also glad the idea of offering local businesses the opportunity to get a photo of their logo or company name against the background of the wonderful ancient site of Machu Picchu in return for a donation."

If you have a local business and would like a photo of your logo at the top of Machu Picchu and are prepared to donate, please contact Callum at callum.elliott94@hotmail.co.uk

If you would like to sponsor his climb and help Callum reach his target, you can donate on his Everyday Heroes page at <https://give.everydayhero.com/uk/callum-elliott>

National Trust's spring fair raises £700

■ THE National Trust Axe Valley Centre held their annual spring fair at Colyford Memorial Hall on Saturday. The event hosted a variety of stalls including a raffle, books, plants and local crafts while volunteers in the kitchen were kept busy serving teas and coffees. The Axe Valley Centre raised £703 with a stall for the Sidmouth National Trust shop making a further £110. Pictured above are committee members of the Axe Valley Centre, including new chairman Dave Chumbley (back row, second from left) and event organiser Jan Uden (back row, third from left).

Forage for your supper at Holyford Woods

A FORAGING walk and supper will be led through Holyford Woods Local Nature Reserve in Colyford by wild food expert Chris Holland on Friday, May 15th.

The walk, organised by East Devon District Council's Countryside Team, will be held from 7pm to 9pm when those taking part will learn how to safely recognise and prepare at least 15 wild edible plants to be found in the woods during mid-May, and will also cook up some of their findings en route.

Chris, who has been running foraging courses for 15 years, said: "Foraging for wild food and cooking it together around an open fire is something humans have been doing in small groups for hundreds of thousands of years. Without the knowledge of plants our ancestors gained none of us would be here today. By knowing which plants are safe and some of the ones to avoid not only will you be able to forage without fear, you will also have a light snack of some freshly prepared spring greens."

The walk and supper costs £10 each and booking is essential as places are limited. Call 01395 517557 or email countryside@eastdevon.gov.uk to secure a place.

Age UK host special dinner

by Ian Barradale

THE Seaton Branch of Age UK held their annual fish and chip dinner at Number One Harepath Road last week.

Over 60 fish and chip dinners were cooked by Seaton Fish Bar for the clients of Age UK with meals being served by the dedicated group of volunteers who help out each week.

The meals are booked by buying a ticket at one of the regular meetings on Wednesday mornings or Thursday afternoons.

The tickets are sold at £2 each with the remaining cost of the meal being subsidised by Seaton Age UK.

Funds are raised throughout the year by the knitting of small 'bobble' hats which are placed on top of smoothie drinks bottles, with a donation being made of 25p for every hat knitted by the drinks manufacturer.

Last year the Seaton branch knitted 20,000 small hats raising a magnificent £5,000.

The knitting project so far this year is Twiddle Muffs for those suffering with dementia and baby clothes for premature babies with this year's small hat knitting campaign due to start shortly.

This year the guest speaker was Carol Gilson, the founder of the Joe Gilson Mobility Scheme.

She gave an informative talk on how she set up her group to provide free mobility scooters to deserving people.

She explained how she would be donated a mobility scooter or wheelchair which was unused and, with her volunteer help, bring it back up to first class condition.

The scooter would then be donated free of charge to a deserving person.

So far Carol has donated 102 mobility scooters, with another one due to go out shortly.

Age UK Seaton branch meet at Number One, Harepath Road on Wednesday mornings; the Knit & Natter group meets Thursday afternoons.

If anyone has knitting wool they would like to donate, it can be dropped off either day at Number One or any time at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall.

All set for the Beer Blazer

BEER Primary School is hoping to repeat last year's success when holding the annual Beer Blazer 10k, 5k and 1 mile multi-terrain runs on Sunday, May 10th.

Last year's 10k race attracted 130 runners - plus good turnouts for the other distances.

Spokesperson Katherine Reed said: "The 10k course is set over some of Axe Valley Runners' Grizzly course taking in private land covering fields, tracks, a challenging pebble beach, Beer Undercliffs, 'The Stairway to Heaven', clifftops, open common and breathtaking views of the Jurassic Coast."

Seaton hangs out the flags for St George

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

SEATON may not have reached its St George's Day glory of the early 1990s, but some good efforts were made in the sunshine on April 23rd.

It was back in 1991 that Seaton resident Daphne Harman-Young decided that Seaton should go the extra mile.

She worked with shops and other businesses to orchestrate St George's Day celebrations that attracted media interest from the whole of the southwest.

One newspaper described the celebrations and decorations as "hitherto unseen".

At the time, Daphne told one newspaper: "I think we need to show how patriotic we are, especially in the aftermath of the Gulf conflict."

Then MP Sir Peter Emery was so impressed in 1991 that he sent Daphne a telemesssage congratulating and thanking her.

She remained involved until 2010, when ill health forced her to stop, and has a number of scrapbooks to keep the memories alive.

Mark Hammett of Just Flowers is one trader who got flags and other paraphernalia out last week.

■ PROUD: Kath Taylor, Jeff Taylor and Vicky Fisher

He said: Poor old George seems to be forgotten. Normally we put a sword and a shield in the window too, but we have been so busy."

Sweet Heaven proprietor Vicky Fisher didn't hold back on St George's Day decorations.

She explained why, saying:

"Because we are English, and St George is the patron saint of England."

Vicky's mother, Kath Taylor, reminisced and said: "The girls used to have red and white dresses, and the boys were in red and white t-shirts many years ago."

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

HONITON AFTERNOON

AT THEIR April meeting the Honiton Afternoon WI welcomed Connie Thomas who came to give a talk on Farms for City Children. Connie works as a fundraiser for this charity at their offices in Exeter. She explained to members that there were three farms involved in this project.

The nearest one in Devon is Nethercott House which is just outside the village of Iddesleigh, north of Okehampton. The charity was started in 1976 by Clare and Michael Morpurgo (the author of War Horse) and has gone from strength to strength. There are two other farms – Wick Court in Gloucestershire and Lower Treginnis in Pembrokeshire, and there is now approval for a fourth farm.

The children, aged between 8 and 11 years, come from schools from as far away as Newcastle. They are encouraged to take full responsibility for the work they do, caring for the animals and the land. There is a large walled kitchen garden where they help to grow the vegetables they eat with their meals. They also learn how to look after the animals and the poultry. Two donkeys have recently been adopted and there is a Palomino horse.

It has been found that the children benefit tremendously from the experience in ways not possible in the classroom, gaining in confidence and a real sense of achievement. The farm is now fully booked until 2017.

It was a most interesting talk and Connie was able to give members a really fascinating insight into this very worthwhile work. It certainly shows how important projects of this kind can be to the young people who otherwise would not have this special opportunity so early in their lives. A vote of thanks was given by Maureen Doidge.

The next meeting is on the 11th May, at 2.00pm, in the Methodist Chapel, when the Annual Meeting will be held and the Resolutions discussed that are going forward to the Centenary NFWI Annual General Meeting at the Royal Albert Hall in June. This will be followed by a social afternoon.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

THE April meeting of Musbury and Whitford WI was held on the 14th at Whitford Village Hall.

Apologies were taken and birthday posies given.

We had received a thank you letter from the hall management committee, thanking us for our donation to the defibrillator.

Thanks were given to Lesley and Mike for the walk on the Wetlands.

Unfortunately the speaker was a no-show, so we just carried on.

Axe Vale Show competition, 100 years of WI, Lesley to co-ordinate. Maureen is the delegate for the Spring Council meeting in Torquay. Margaret Platts and Jan Bodsworth will be attending the Royal Garden Party at Buck House.

The bursary will be available in May.

Joan Lovell gave some ideas for trips later in the year, which were discussed.

Members are asked to design and make a banner, 10"x8", 100 years of WI for the group meeting at Seaton Town Hall in June.

Next month is the AGM, and WI Advisor, Mary Andrews will be attending. It will be on Tuesday May 12th in Whitford Village Hall at 7.30pm.

Colyford and District Flower Club

THE April meeting was held on Tuesday 14th, a week later than usual due to Easter. It was a little different as members started with a Ploughmans Lunch provided by the committee.

This month we were treated to a most interesting talk, The History of Cottage Gardens, with slides, by Neil Livesey from Picket Nurseries in South Perrott, Dorset, where he has 10 acres and 1,500 varieties of plants, and plants out fifty thousand plants a year.

He went on to say that cottage gardens started around 1328: in those days people started to plant their gardens not only for food but for medicinal reasons also. To explain this he went through a list of plants they would use, and not only had the names but had the plants with him to show:

- St John's Wort – for headaches
- Plantain leaves – for bee and nettle stings
- Ellercampain – for digestive problems and eye complaints
- Calamint – used as a poultice for rheumatic pains
- Samponaria – as soap and air fresheners
- Valerian – as a sedative and cure for restlessness.

The list seemed endless. He gave a few tips on gardens and went on to say that 75% of our food would disappear if it wasn't for bees pollinating – and bees apparently cannot see the colour red, their spectrum is orange to purple.

A vote of thanks was given by Angela Parker and results of the members competition entitled Cottage Garden were – Novice: Sue Irvine, Intermediate: Kay White, and Advanced: shared by Lindi Richards and Jean Underdown. The meeting ended with tea and cake.

The next meeting is May 5th, the title is Out of the Ordinary by Chris Kollen of Totnes and the competition will be WOW! Visitors are very welcome to join in for a relaxing and interesting afternoon. The meeting starts at 2.15pm at Colyford Hall.

Star turn at Honiton U3A

THE April speaker for the Honiton U3A was Dr. Peter Williams whose talk was entitled Stars and the Universe – Birth, Life and Death of a Star.

He began by illustrating to his audience what can be found in the universe other than stars i.e. planets, asteroids, comets, gas and dust. It is from the latter two that stars are formed.

With the aid of diagrams and excellent photographs taken from telescopes around the world using conventional and infra red cameras, he described how a star begins its 'life' as just a cloud of gas composed mainly of hydrogen and small amounts of helium and dust. By its own gravity it compresses becoming hotter until at its centre it becomes hot enough (10million degrees C) to start nuclear reactions which turns the hydrogen to helium. This creates vast amounts of energy and as a result it shines and so a star is 'born'.

He then went on to explain that the 'life' of a star depends entirely on its mass or weight. The heavier the star the shorter its life as the nuclear reactions run faster in greater mass stars thus the nuclear fuel is used more rapidly resulting in the supply of hydrogen becoming exhausted.

How a star dies, again depends on its mass. Stars can 'die' in three different ways – a small star, having run out of fuel, expands to become a Red Giant then shrinks to become a white dwarf and eventually fades away completely. Larger stars collapse in on themselves and the force of this huge pressure forces the star to explode as a Supernova. Finally, if there is enough mass and the Supernova is powerful enough, the core can be compressed to the point that normal space can no longer support it and it compresses to a dimensionless point in space – a Black Hole!

Dr Williams concluded by emphasising that the time scales used in his talk were, of course, enormous – billions of years. So it was reassuring to learn from him that our own star – the sun, still has an expected life of at least another five billion years.

June Brown thanked Dr Williams on behalf of the Honiton U3A for his very interesting and informative talk.

Closures conspiracy?

■ IS there a conspiracy against Seaton, or does this happen everywhere else in East Devon?

Yet again residents and visitors to Seaton are confounded by road closures in a crowded town centre.

The main access road to and from the Town Centre and Seafront was closed this week, with adequate warning, but with no obvious or clear diversions. Also, of course, public transport was seriously affected. No information was available to visitors or residents as to where temporary bus stops were located and there was no presence by Bus Operators personnel, or anybody else, for that matter, to offer advice.

It is no wonder that people do not return to our town if this is how they are treated.

ALAN NICHOLAS,
Seaton

Transport not sculpture

■ A WATERBORNE transport link along the Jurassic Coast would be a truly wonderful asset for Seaton.

Forget the wave structures – they will not boost visitor numbers.

SARAH BEVAN,
Seaton

Big Breakfast thanks

■ PLEASE give a mention to the Big Breakfast Team of Kilmington who held a Big Breakfast in aid of Cancer Research UK on March 21st. They raised the marvellous sum of £2,000.65.

They do deserve recognition for all their hard work as do the residents of Kilmington for their support.

JANET ROWE,
by email

Loss of Seaton parking spots hurting residents

■ WE refer to the article and readers' letters in the April 21st edition of View from Seaton.

In response to Mr. Stringer:

■ The question of house prices is NOT scare-mongering. We have been advised by a trustworthy Seaton estate agent that we will have lost c£10,000 from the value of our house as we now have no parking spaces close to our property. Ours is the only property in that section between Ryalls Court and Cherry Drive that does not have off-road parking.

Some years ago we put in a formal application (at a cost of £96) to have a parking space created in our front garden and the application was refused. We have enquired again recently, and two householders between Cherry Drive and York Road have made similar applications. The response from East Devon is that planning permission will not be granted because of "reversing" issues.

■ We have also been told that some residents of Ryalls Court and Townsend fear their property values have been badly affected.

■ We take issue with your comment about the no-parking restriction making the road safer. A number of residents have remarked on the increased speed of traffic. Since you don't give your full address, it isn't clear how close you are to the area in question, but from the cars speeding up and down past our house at all hours, it certainly is no safer.

■ The huge influx of cars now parking on Townsend Avenue and Road, and at Ryalls Court, is not only caused by the new double-yellow lines but by the "residents only" restriction on York Road and Highwell Road – those two roads are now half empty most of the time.

■ You are fortunate to have a private parking space.

You may say why did we buy a house with no parking ... but we have lived at this address for 33 years, and, as you yourself point out, parking was not a problem three decades ago. Up until October last year, there has been ample space on the road at the front of our property, and we have co-existed harmoniously all that time with other drivers who needed parking spaces. We would gladly pay to have a "pull-in" of some sort on our property, but, as explained above, that is not an option.

■ There are about 20 houses between Ryalls Court and Harepath Road affected by these new restrictions, and many of those residents have described the current situation as "chaotic".

■ We, and other affected drivers, do not enjoy having to park quite a distance from our homes, in Ryalls Court or Townsend, causing congestion and upsetting those residents in the process, but at the moment we have no alternative.

In response to the anonymous letter from a Ryalls Court resident:

■ We fully understand how disruptive and unpleasant it is for you to suddenly have so many vehicles parking near your homes. None of us wants to have to park there. The whole thing is extremely difficult and stressful for everyone.

In response to the DCC spokesperson who said that the 'changes were advertised in the usual way':

■ We don't tend to read the small print every week looking for possible problems. Having been tax-paying residents at this address for 33 years, the very least that should have happened is that we should have been notified personally of the proposed changes, since they have had such a distressing effect on us. We were told that somebody 'knocked on our door' but we were out. This is not good enough!

■ There are so many disgruntled householders now in the surrounding roads – those who have huge difficulty finding anywhere to park, and those who have cars parked nose-to-tail outside their homes.

■ We were of course pleased that Devon County has agreed that a site meeting would be beneficial; we hope that their representatives will come with open minds, willing to listen to the many and varied concerns of residents.

■ The "residents only" restriction on Highwell and York Roads, and the double-yellow lines arbitrarily painted on Seaton Down Road, have created this problem. The hope is that a positive solution can be found.

TERRY & DIANA PAVEY,
Seaton Down Road, Seaton

Indoor haven is needed for Seaton visitors

■ INSTEAD of keep messing about with useless things at Fisherman's Gap, which cost a fortune, why not get the old Woolworth building up and running and poor old Rainbow Stores re-opened?

We need somewhere where visitors come to which they can have a walk round, and would be handy to go into when it's windy and raining hard.

Coaches are still bringing people into the town – when it's sunny, that's fine; they can sit on the Esplanade, or at the front of The Hook & Parrot providing it's open, or the lovely little cafes next door.

All the fancy ideas don't give visitors anything to do.

Well done to Jill and Simon Wellington – we wish them every success with the Axmouth Golf Club. It's such a beautiful venue.

Mortons Pharmacy

MORTON'S Pharmacy in Axminster is pleased to welcome a new pharmacist Ian Findlay to it's close team. Ian is a very experienced and friendly Pharmacist who has been recruited to help patients and customers to understand their medicines and gain the most benefit from them. Ian is also an Independent prescriber with a specialty in diabetes and, with the current pressures on NHS services, both Ian Morton (Owner) and Ian Findlay will be looking at new ways of improving access to services in the town at a time when NHS services nationally are stretched and the town of Axminster is growing.

Ian Morton said: "Ian Findlay is a superb pharmacist and already in great demand. Having two experienced pharmacists enables us to build on our tradition of high quality patient care and be able to look after our loyal customers for years to come."

Morton's pharmacy offers home delivery of prescriptions, supplies malaria prevention medication, offers fantastic prices on private prescriptions and can provide access to emergency medicines if you have run out of your prescription on a Saturday morning. Ian Morton took over the long established pharmacy from Mr Gwyn Llewelyn in 2001 and, continuing with the tradition, Morton's is a family run business.

We also supply Crucial Trading's Sisal, Coir & Seagrass ranges. These can also be made into any size rug that you can customise with your own choice of borders. So why not come along & design your own rug?

Karndean has become very popular since we started selling it in 1990. Again it is a product in which you can use your own artistic flair & design to create your own unique floor using the available design pieces or just simply lay the wood planks or tiles as they are. So don't be put off by our smart appearance! We have prices to suit everyone.

Kathy Arnold

REFLEXOLOGY, which has its roots in ancient Egypt, works on the principle that every organ and system of the body has a corresponding point or zone in the feet. For example, the spot in the centre of the big toe corresponds to the pituitary gland, and on the ball of the foot underneath the big toe there is a point that corresponds to the thyroid and parathyroid glands.

How does it work?

A reflexology practitioner uses pressure to massage each of the points in the toes, feet and ankles to release tension, remove energy blockages, disperse accumulations of calcium and uric acid, stimulate blood circulation and promote healing of both body and mind.

What does it involve?

The practitioner will begin by taking details of the client's medical history and lifestyle. The client will be asked to remove only their footwear. The client, fully clothed apart from their feet, will lie on a massage couch or sit in a comfortable chair whilst the practitioner works on their feet and ankles.

Gentle pressure is applied to each pressure point and, where there are corresponding physical problems, the client may experience some slight discomfort and/or the therapist may feel some blockages in the area. For example, when the practitioner touches the reflex point that corresponds to the gall bladder, if the client has a problem with that organ, then some discomfort may be felt in the foot.

Generally, most clients report that a reflexology treatment is wonderfully relaxing and soothing, and many people fall asleep. Each session will last about an hour and, in most cases, a series of sessions are necessary to resolve any problems. Some clients book a regularly weekly or monthly session as a preventative measure, to keep their systems balanced and in good working order.

What is it good for?

Reflexology can be used to treat a wide range of disorders including skin and respiratory conditions, migraine, PMS and menopausal problems, chronic fatigue, stress, depression and anxiety.

What are the benefits?

Reflexology can be used both to help with conditions such as, for example, eczema, bronchitis or insomnia for which the client is seeking immediate treatment; or it can be used to keep the body's energy flowing and the mind in balance.

What are the side effects and when should it be avoided?

Reflexology should be avoided during the first three months of pregnancy. As part of the balancing process, some clients find that reflexology encourages the elimination of toxins from the body. Therefore, as this could interfere with any medication you are taking, it is very important to inform the practitioner of any medicinal treatment you are receiving.

Also, be sure to tell the Reflexology practitioner if you have a pacemaker, kidney stones or gallstones. If you have a health problem such as high blood pressure, thyroid disease or diabetes; or you have a foot injury, phlebitis, thrombosis or blood clots, have a chat with your doctor before booking a reflexology session.

Some clients report that, immediately after a reflexology treatment, they feel very relaxed and sleepy and just want to go home and lie down. Reflexology is suitable for everyone, whatever your age. (Source Embodyforyou.com)

Roots to Health Modern Herbal Medicine

ROOTS To Health is a local complementary consultancy, advice and prescription practice run by qualified medical herbalist Jayne Palmer.

Herbal medicine, or Phytotherapy, is a science in its own right, based on modern scientific research. It's the world's oldest and most widely-used form of medicine and uses plant extracts to treat common health complaints such as raised blood pressure, headaches, stress and indigestion.

Jayne has a BSc in Phytotherapy. She spent many years working in local health food stores as a herbal advisor, then decided to work within a conventional medical role as healthcare assistant at Honiton Surgery, in order to gain the benefits of both fields of medicine.

Last year, she decided to set up her own clinic, which she now offers at the Health and Wellbeing Centre in Axminster on Mondays and at the Chiropractic Health Centre in Honiton on Saturdays.

Jayne explains: "Herbs can be used to treat the body in many different ways and, combined properly, will work effectively as medication for a large range of diseases. We are all unique and will respond to herbs differently. As a herbalist, I'm trained in the same diagnostic skills as orthodox doctors and choose herbs specifically for each individual. I search for, and treat, the underlying cause of the problem, rather than just the symptom, to restore the body's balance and activate its own healing powers."

"I believe that conservation is vitally important and use organically-grown plants wherever possible. Similarly, I try and source locally-grown plants to treat local ailments and actively promote sustainable prescribing of herbal medicines."

Initial consultations with Jayne last 60 to 90 minutes, during which you will be given a treatment plan including tailor-made prescriptions. These could include tinctures, creams or lotions, ointments, oils and infusions.

Val Davis Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Five steps to mental wellbeing

Evidence suggests there are five steps we can all take to improve our mental wellbeing.

If you approach them with an open mind and try them out, you can judge the results yourself.

- connect – connect with the people around you: your family, friends, colleagues and neighbours. Spend time developing these relationships.
- be active – you don't have to go to the gym. Take a walk, go cycling or play a game of football. Find the activity that you enjoy and make it a part of your life.
- keep learning – learning new skills can give you a sense of achievement and a new confidence. So why not sign up for that cooking course, start learning to play a musical instrument, or figure out how to fix your bike?

• give to others – even the smallest act can count whether it's a smile, a thank you or a kind word. Larger acts, such as volunteering at your local community centre, can improve your mental well being and help you build new social networks.

• take notice – be more aware of the present moment, including your feelings and thoughts, your body and the world around you. Some people call this awareness "mindfulness", and it can positively change the way you feel about life and how you approach challenges.

The Alexander Technique

The Alexander Technique for Riders

GOOD for us and good for our horses!

'The horse has given us pleasure ages and service throughout the ages. Yet all the while it was bringing us an even greater gift: a gift of life - the lesson of 'good use'. (Danny Pevsner)

If you watch a horse when he is free, he uses himself well, his head, neck and back in perfect alignment. Although the horses' muscle and bone is essentially the same as ours, his muscular and skeletal systems are profoundly affected by the fact that he is physically and psychologically developed for running away from his enemies. He was not primarily designed to have someone sitting on his back. Carrying a rider changes his movement: horse and rider have a dynamic balance - balance in motion not static balance. If that balance is disturbed in any way the horse will not be able to move freely.

The Alexander technique can give us a practical way in helping us to overcome our habitually muscular tension. Our horse will enjoy our newfound lightness and will appreciate being able to move with lightness himself.

Lindy Parry

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each a. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Sterling Preservation Ltd

Don't let Beetles play in your Loft!

SPRING heralds the beginning of "woodworm season" when the common furniture beetle begins to emerge from the centre of timbers where it's been eating during the winter. Their presence is detected by little round holes often coupled with deposits of dust.

Given the right conditions beetles can infest a wide variety of timber, both soft and hardwoods including structural building timbers, furniture and wooden ornaments. If left unchecked infestations can lead to severe structural weakening and eventually total collapse.

But treated early with an effective woodworm insecticide, common furniture beetles don't pose a major risk to structural durability.

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates

EVERGREENHEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

For more information visit their website at GREENSHUTTERS.co.uk or follow them on Facebook at Facebook.com/GreenshuttersGC.

Desert to Jungle

Exotic and large plants

"DESERT to Jungle", at Henlade, Taunton, is not your average garden centre.

Owners Rob and Dave have created an oasis of exotic looking plants with which you can turn your garden into a taste of your favourite holiday destination. Be it the tropical Caribbean, the colourful yet dry Mediterranean, or even the Arizona desert, there are plants to suit at the nursery.

But here is the best thing of all... ..nearly all of them are hardy in an English winter!

Owners Rob and Dave are passionate about their nursery and are a mine of knowledge and guidance as to the most suitable plants for the look you want and the budget you can afford.

However the nursery is not just exotics. There is a large range of "bigger than average" plants, and bamboos, particularly useful for an instant effect, or if you want to screen off your neighbours garage or extension, or just cannot wait for your garden to grow."

Square & Compass Inn

A very relaxed, elegant wedding with very, very good food

There has been an inn at Windmill Hill for around 200 years and it is part of the fabric of the area. The Square and Compass is now a well-known hotel, renowned for excellent food. Owners, Chris and Janet Slow have been resident for 17+ years and in this time they have built up a reputation for very good food and drink. Run in a relaxed, informal manner, you can enjoy a drink, some food, or celebrate a special occasion in the Barn, a separate venue behind the Square and Compass.

The Barn

Set in its own spacious gardens, the Barn is completely separated from the Inn and Stables Hotel rooms and is a very popular venue for weddings. Full of rustic charm with heavy wooden tables, chairs and careful lighting, it is decorated with a rural theme and can hold up to 250 people. The informal atmosphere that gives the Square and Compass its special charm extends to the Barn, allowing you to relax during your special occasion knowing that every detail has been planned exactly to your needs beforehand so the whole day runs seamlessly. We are absolutely committed to making your day as perfect as we possibly can.

The Barn's rustic appearance belies modern facilities. There is a dance area and stage with a powerful sound system and lighting set up. There is also a fully licensed bar, modern toilets and disabled access in all areas. The Barn has a civil license for weddings, with the large gardens surrounded by fields making a truly beautiful setting. We built the Barn using old-fashioned materials, specifically for weddings. We think it is the perfect venue for your special day.

The Barn is a little more than 5 minutes from Junction 25 of the M5 at Taunton and likewise from the A303 at Ilminster. Although set in pleasant rural surroundings, it is easily accessible with full facilities available for business meetings, exhibitions and corporate events. The speciality of our weddings is that the whole day revolves around an exceptionally good quality, generous meal in the afternoon, prepared and cooked by a team of highly professional chefs led by Janet, one of the owners. Catherine Carter Photography

ONE of my favourite photos to capture is the grooms face with his family around him, as his bride-to-be walks down the aisle.

Father-in-Law handing mum a tissue during the vows and the brides rosy cheeks from stories revealed in her dads speech, are occasions where I blend into the surroundings photographing the laughter and enjoyment of the day.

Where did Grandma and Grandad sneak off to during the first dance? They were first in the photo booth!! Becoming a must have at weddings, I have now introduced props and customized backdrops for endless fun. Visit www.catherinercarterphotography.com for more information.

Devon Country Carriages

A family run business which for the last few years has been providing genuine Victorian carriages pulled by our pair of traditional coloured horses, to travel in style to any wedding venue. It is the perfect and most romantic way for the Bride to arrive at her wedding, and for the newly wed couple to travel onwards to the reception. Relax with a glass of champagne and soak up the atmosphere as the two of you get a chance to spend your first moments together on this most memorable and romantic journey.

Our well trained horses are just as comfortable in busy towns as they are on country lanes. The horses, driver and groom, as well as the carriage, will be immaculately turned out to help make your day just perfect.

For a tailor made service to suit your requirements, please feel free to contact us.

Weddings

The big 'to-do-list!'

Staring at a massive 'to-do-list' before your big day can be incredibly overwhelming. Especially when all you want is to create the perfect day for the beginning of the rest of your life, with your loved one to be! So we have broken down the top 10 key elements, to put your mind at ease. So put your feet up, and dream BIG!

1. Budget

Budget equals scary for a lot of people. But all you need to do is think realistically and set a price you and your partner can both agree on.

After this, it's all about prioritizing the things that are most important to you; the spectacular stately home, the stunning vintage wedding dress or the most delicious petits-fors! Knowing what is most important to you will really shape your day into what you both want.

Keep your eye out for hidden charges, such as corkage fees – as this can set you back a small fortune.

2. Location, location, location!

Location is key! Having a personal interest in a venue can really make your day. If you are religious, spiritual or humanist, there is almost certainly a venue out there to suit.

Be mindful that in the UK you can only legally marry in registered locations – but this doesn't have to go against your perfect spot! Blessings can take place on beautiful beaches, magisterial woodland and trendy city spots. The world is your oyster!

3. The after party

After the ceremony, you will of course want to celebrate! Of course many ceremony venues are open to you for your whole big day, and offer many packages to suit your budget.

Why not think outside of the box by looking for quaint villages or town halls, industrial warehouses, barns, museums or a meadow for a tipi.

4. Capturing your day

Capturing the memories of your big day is definitely worth considering. When I got married, everything went by so quickly! Being able to hold the memories in my hands and share them with my partner is so precious as we can relive it through the images.

Check out wedding blogs, magazines and word-of-mouth recommendations for brilliant photographers and filmmakers who can suggest ideas to make your planning that little bit more fun.

5. Keep your guests entertained!

To fill your day with a buzz and to allow your guests to have a complete blast, why not consider hiring some outdoor fun! Everything from croquet, board games, and photo booths – these are all things to think about when going through your checklist.

6. Entertainment

Personalise your entertainment based on your own interests. If you love music then compile your own playlist. Or if you are a keen baker why not host a bake off contest?

7. The after, after party!

Don't forget about getting away as newlyweds after tying the knot! Planning your big day may feel like the most important thing, but finally being married and together holds so much value.

Anything goes when it comes to your first holiday as newlyweds, from glamping on the coast, to treading the souqs of Marrakesh – the world is open to you!

8. Food

Wedding breakfasts aren't what they were 50 years ago! Everything from hog roasts, to hiring a vintage fish and chip van, to a sit-down afternoon tea are all possible.

If you love ice-cream, popcorn or sweets – don't limit yourself to tradition! There are so many things to suit all budgets, and so much available.

9. Your grand entrance

Everything from tractors, to campervans and horse-drawn carriages are available for your big day. Go with what you would feel comfortable sitting in, and think of the great photo opportunities!

10. Do-It-Yourself!

If you want to make your day truly personal, there is so much you can do yourself. Not only will this open up your budget, but also you can truly inject your personality into your day.

Everything from making your own invitations, growing your own flowers, to showcasing your baking skills – you can truly shine on your day.

Willow Studio

LYDIA Baker was born and raised in Sidmouth, and loves being a professional photographer. Since opening her studio in 2007 she hasn't looked back, and has earned the privilege of being a finalist in the Westcountry Wedding Awards for the past few years.

Lydia says, "I truly have loved making great use of my education which includes an honours Degree in Photography from Plymouth University as well as having gained a qualifying examination from the British Institute of Professional Photographers. Following my studies I jumped head first into my photography. I enjoy my work to the fullest and feel that nothing makes a better photographer than one who puts her heart and soul into every click of the camera."

As a result of Willow Photographic Studio being in such demand for all types of photography shoots as well as weddings, Lydia has taken on two brilliant additional photographers, Lameze Stout and David Maxwell (Maxy). They both share the same fervour and passion for photography as Lydia does, and together they make a team who put in 100% effort, kindness, and value into every job they do. They all have a relaxed yet formal approach to their work, which provides a great environment for a perfect picture taking experience.

The West of England Laser Centre situated at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital, can treat these plus other skin conditions by laser.

Sun spots and freckles – sometimes known as 'liver' or 'age' spots – exist where the body collects more pigment, called melanin. For removal of moles, short bursts of high laser light are applied, thus removing precise layers of superficial skin layer by layer until the lesion is significantly diminished/no longer visible. The precision of modern-day lasers minimises risks of scarring – unlike the older version lasers of the past.

Also available is laser removal of: facial thread veins, warts, verrucas, "blood spots", excess hair and tattoos. In addition various injection treatments are used to smooth away fine facial lines and/or to add volume and definition, eg. to the lips. Baggy eyelid problems can also be solved at the centre by a minor surgical procedure.

Our website at www.welc.co.uk provides details on all our treatments. For further information or to book a consultation please telephone 01823 331773 or e-mail us at lasercentre@lineone.net.

Angel Eyes Photography

IT'S no secret that wedding photography will be one of the most important investments you make for your special day.

I have 4 different wedding collections to suit everyone including all day coverage right up to your first dance to just covering the ceremony and reception.

My style is very much natural and a reportage style. I love capturing those special moments throughout the day. Sometimes moments that the bride and groom weren't aware had happened. I will also do some posed shots for the group photographs if you want them and the bride and groom shots.

I am happy to travel anywhere in the UK from my home town in Somerset. I have years of experience and love nothing more than capturing those important special memories of a wedding day.

What my clients say: "Thank you so much to Sarah on photographing our wedding in January!

We are so pleased with the photos and amazed how you got to be in so many places at once to capture the whole day!! Brilliant photos and great service and value for money xx" (Marc and Amy)

"Absolutely love our wedding photos, they are brilliant. Sarah is so friendly and very professional at the same time. We all felt at ease while having pictures taken and no pressure to get them all done. I would definitely recommend Sarah to family, friends and anyone looking for a wedding photographer. So glad we had Sarah there for the whole day and to capture our first dance in the way she did. Xx" (James and Sam)

Styles and trends: lace wedding dresses

LACE is an eternally beautiful material for wedding dresses, and it's a style that has lasted for centuries in the fashion world. It's a favourite amongst designers worldwide, its reputation huge. And it's not hard to see why!

Wedding Dress Fashion Trends

Lace seems to be everywhere, and the biggest designers are using it all over the world. They have been for years! Its regard may in part be due to the fine craftsmanship that is handmade lace, but the popularity of the white lace wedding dress is often attributed to Queen Victoria's marriage to Prince Albert in her lace-trimmed gown, train, and veil. Celebrities really help to push the reputation of this fine material—just look at Grace Kelly, whose wedding dress is famed in the fashion world. Now lace is everywhere, from bridalwear to wedding decoration.

Lace features in many of the trends for next year, most prominently with the likes of nude lace. The design acts as a bit of an optical illusion that may, for some, seem a little bit racy. But it gives some absolutely beautiful effects, and a look like that of old vintage.

Being a very traditional, flattering material, lace is wonderful for a vintage or art deco wedding. It really adds a pretty elegance to the wearer, and with the ornate designs available right across the material, you can get any number of beautiful finishes to the dress. Open backs seem to be a big trend for next year, and lace can really set off that effect. Also bohemian gowns and tea length dresses really run with lace, giving some of the most stunning designs.

Choosing the Right Material

If you're worried a full-lace wedding dress isn't for you however, don't fret! You can still get that spark of vintage with lace sleeves, shoes, a cloak, jacket or bolero, or a belt, veil or a hairpiece. Perhaps even a handkerchief or a pair of gloves? Lace is a very flexible material to work with; with it, you can get any number of styles: chic or floaty, grand or unadorned. You may even consider some appliqué work, where bits of lace are stitched by hand to parts of the dress in order to accent it. Don't be afraid to try out different colours either—ivory lace on a white dress, or white on pale pink or blue-silver? Brides are no longer going after the classic white wedding. Feel free to shake it up!

Choose your lace carefully, as it can come in many forms and give any number of stunning effects—some is denser and heavier with deep patterns, some is lighter and softer, its design delicate. And then there is even lace decorated with beads and sequins, crystals, gems and pearls, and these really echo the fashion of the Roaring Twenties or the Victorian era. Research thoroughly by perhaps keeping a scrapbook of the materials you like, and the dress designs you love, and be careful when it comes to buying your dress/accessories. There are many cheap knock-offs in the world so it's advised that you seek professional advice on what to look for when buying your items. Of course, not all of the cheaper lace is a bad thing, for when it's done right it can really suit a bride on a budget and still look magnificent.

Wedding nails are the perfect complement to your bridal look...You've got the ring, the veil and the bouquet, now all you need are picture-perfect hands

The nail shape

MAKE sure that your nails are groomed from the minute you get engaged. Once you are engaged, you want to be careful not to compete with your engagement ring in any pictures, so it's best to keep the nails short and round.

The nail shades

Soft pinks and nude beige shades look chic and subtle. Try finding a shade that is closest to your skin tone ensures the polish won't compete with your beautiful engagement and wedding rings in pictures.

The longevity

You can get the most of your manicure when you apply very thin coats, letting the polish dry in between each layer so the solvents evaporate, it will wear better and last longer. Waiting at least a minute or two between each coat is recommended.

brate the fascination that children have with dinosaurs and trains!

An evening of Parisian style jazz

WHETHER it be fashion, food or the art of living, the French know a thing or two about style, and that includes music. And musicians don't come more stylish than acclaimed French jazz singer Gabrielle Ducomble, who will be performing at Ilminster Arts Centre with her Trio, on Friday, May 15th.

For this very special evening, Ilminster Arts Centre will be crossing the Channel to transport visitors (in spirit at least!) to the shady clubs of Montmartre and the Left Bank for an evening of sophisticated Gallic infused jazz.

Singing in English and her native French, Gabrielle performs Parisian-style jazz and tango, putting a contemporary spin on songs by Edith Piaf, Jacques Brel, Serge Gainsbourg and Astor Piazzolla, plus her own original material. Her band, including some of Europe's finest musicians in an authentic line-up of guitar, double bass and drums, provides the perfect anchor for her superlative voice, which has been described as "astonishingly beautiful" by Emma Freud, BBC Radio 4 Loose Ends.

The show begins at 8pm on Friday, May 15th. Tickets are £14, and a pre-show meal is available for £12 at 7pm but must be booked in advance. For more details call 01460 55783 or visit the website at themeetinghouse.org.uk

The small hall with the BIG reputation

David Hall

FOLK • ROOTS
ACOUSTIC • JAZZ
BLUES • DANCE
THEATRE • FILM

APRIL has proved to be another month of excellent music at The David Hall.

On Saturday, April 11th, a capacity audience was left totally spellbound by the return performance of 4 Parts Guitars, who proved once again that there are no better exponents of Acoustic guitar music. Their eclectic mix of Folk, Blues, Jazz and Classical gave us a memorable event by one of the most popular musical groups on the circuit. I'm already looking to get them back as soon as possible.

Friday 17th saw the fifth return to The David Hall of the incredibly popular performer, Richard Digance. His large audience laughed a lot, thought plenty and, importantly, enjoyed every second of Richard's unique show. His gig included many stories, great songs and superb guitar playing, which ensured that, after a two-hour performance, everyone went away happy, but wanting more. We shall see him here again!

On Saturday, April 25th, The David Hall welcomed Spiro - one of Folk music's most sought-after bands - for their first visit. This quartet has a totally unique approach to Traditional music and their performance was quite breathtaking. A great band that I believe is destined for "stardom"!

May gets off to an "Irish" start with a visit by the fantastic singer/songwriter, Kieran Goss. Over the last 20 years Kieran has consistently delivered songs of rare quality that have won him fans from across the globe. Kieran is a really great live performer and for this tour, he is joined by the very talented Annie Kinsella. This is a "not to be missed" gig!

On Saturday 16th May one of Folk music's fastest rising stars, Lisa Knapp, will be visiting us for the first time. Lisa has a unique voice and style which enables her to connect with a new - and in many cases younger - audience. Certainly a big star of the future!

Musically, the month comes to an end on Sunday 24th with the first-ever visit of Richard Digance's favourite band - The Young 'uns. This Teesside trio of Sean Cooney, Michael Hughes and David Eagle are an unlikely force of nature on stage, beguiling audiences with humour, bold vocals, gripping storylines and superb musicality. This will be a "killer" show and early booking is advised.

With June fast approaching, may I please remind you that the 4th Petherton Folk Fest will take place on Saturday, June 20th, starting at 10am and continuing until 6.30pm. With the exception of a few workshops with modest entry fees this is a free event and will be even bigger this year, with more emphasis on entertainment for the family and children. A mixture of music and dance, and many stalls, will ensure that all musical and culinary tastes are catered for! Here's hoping for a dry day. Please support this event as we believe it is an important tradition that should be secured for future generations.

All the best, Pete Wheeler, Petherton Arts Trust

Also at The David Hall in May:

On Friday, May 8th, Petherton Picture Show will screen Magic in the Moonlight, a romantic comedy written and directed by Woody Allen; and on Friday, May 22nd, Jimmy's Hall, directed by Ken Loach.

On Tuesday, May 12th, Bristol Old Vic Theatre School will present The Beaux' Stratagem by George Farquhar. This is satire at its best!

Performance Night is scheduled for Friday, May 29th at 7.30pm. To perform, please drop an email to folk@chriswatts.org

The David Hall's popular monthly Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday, May 27th from 10am to 12pm. Entry is free.

For further details about any of the above please check the website, www.thedavidhall.org.uk, or call 01460 240 340.

An evening of clairvoyance

EX-HAIRDRESSER Steve Holbrook, regarded by many as one of the UK's top Clairvoyant Mediums, is visiting locally very shortly, and he explains how he hears the voices of our loved ones that have passed away. His ability started from behind the salon chair, and he now visits Theatres and Hotels around the country, and as far as the Caribbean, demonstrating his unique ability to act as a telephone exchange between this world and the Spirit world.

Steve says that he was always aware from being a child that life existed beyond the grave, when he awoke to find five soldiers marching through his bedroom, but could only see the top half of them floating through the room. "This was very un-nerving experience but it was to give me an early glimpse of what was to come, and now it's as natural as breathing to me"

Steve started work in Leeds city centre in a busy hairdressing salon, and feels that the years he spent behind the chair, having that personal contact with the customers, stimulated this rare, yet natural ability to hear the voices of spirits. People used to come in and book for their hair cut, and often got more than they bargained for when he passed on a message from their loved one. Steve was always the busiest stylist, and had a six week waiting list if people didn't re-book immediately, and says "I often wonder if they kept coming back for my ability as a hair stylist, or the possibility that they might receive a message from a relative who had passed away!"

He now gives messages of re-assurance to people who have lost their loved ones, and by communicating with them, helps them understand that life continues, just simply in a different dimension. One lady's mum came through to her in one of Steve's messages, and said to the daughter "don't forget the brown Prada handbag on Friday". The lady replied "I'm putting it in my mums coffin on Friday, she only died 5 days ago". Who would know this information?

Steve has three books out, 'Light in the Darkness', 'Out of this World', and 'Survival', and these all offer a true insight into the day-to-day life of a working medium, Steve's beliefs on many areas of Spiritualism, and a great background in to Steve's life.

Steve has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charities over the years, £50,000 for his local hospice in Wakefield, £5,000 for MacMillan Support, and most recently our current total for PACT - a charity that helps terminally ill children and their parents across the country - is almost £21,000. He is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this charity.

Stephen Holbrook will host an evening of Clairvoyance at the Beehive, Honiton on Friday, May 8th, doors 7pm for 7.30pm.

Tickets are £17 in advance or £18 on the door. To book call 01823 666292 or visit the website at www.steveholbrook.co.uk

All-New Honda HR-V Set to be Among Most Efficient in Class

THE all-new Honda HR-V will be one of the most efficient cars in its class and boast an unmatched combination of sought-after attributes when it arrives in showrooms across the UK this summer.

As well as dynamic styling, class-leading interior space and versatility, and advanced infotainment and safety technologies, the new HR-V will deliver fuel economy and emissions among the best in its class. It will be offered from launch with a choice of 1.6 litre i-DTEC diesel and 1.5 litre i-VTEC petrol engines, both from Honda's advanced Earth Dreams Technology series.

"The Honda HR-V created this fast growing market segment back in 1999 and for 2015 the all new HR-V will offer a class leading ownership proposition, refinement, sleek styling, a quality feel as well as being packed to the roof with safety and technology features. We are confident that the HR-V will perform favourably against its main competitors in this segment, such as the current market leading Nissan Qashqai." Commented Leon Brannan, Head of Car, Honda (UK).

Combining the 1.6 litre i-DTEC diesel paired with a newly-engineered six-speed manual transmission, Honda's new subcompact SUV will return fuel economy figures from 71mpg, with CO2 emissions starting from just 104 g/km. HR-V customers won't find performance compromised by the car's frugality, however, with 118bhp powering the new HR-V from 0-62mph in 10.1 seconds.

Petrol buyers can select a 130 PS 1.5 litre i-VTEC engine, achieving combined fuel economy of 54.2mpg and CO2 emissions from 120 g/km when they opt for the CVT automatic transmission. When married with the standard six-speed manual, the new petrol-powered HR-V delivers fuel economy of 50mpg and CO2 emissions at a highly competitive 130 g/km. Sprightly performance is assured with 62mph reached from standstill in just 10.3 seconds with the manual and 10.9 seconds when equipped with the optional CVT.

The new HR-V's efficient performance credentials are aided by its design and class-leading aerodynamics, with underbody panels optimising airflow. In profile, the HR-V portrays a characterful poise, with the distinctive, boldly sculpted lines of a coupé merged with the tough, solid stance of a robust SUV.

Consumer Ignorance is Costly for the Used Car Industry

AT THIS week's FLA Automotive Financial Crime Conference, HPI put the spot light on consumer ignorance; a staggering 42% of used car buyers it surveyed did not know who held legal title on a car that has finance owing on it. Managing Director Neil Hodson calls upon the industry to work closer together to raise greater awareness of the very real risk to trade and private buyers and sellers alike; 1 in 4 cars checked by HPI are subject to outstanding finance.

The latest survey from automotive technology solutions provider, HPI, went on to reveal that nearly a quarter of those surveyed (23%) assumed the car belongs to the person named on the Log Book, highlighting the extent of misconception amongst consumers. If a consumer buys a car from a dealer that later turns out to have outstanding finance against, they will be protected by Innocent Purchase Protection. However, if a dealer buys a car from a consumer who has innocently sold it on with finance still owing - believing they are the legal owner - the dealer will be liable if that consumer doesn't keep up the finance payments. Although dealers buy in good faith, just as the general public do, they are not protected by Innocent Purchase Protection and need to gain 'clear title'.

Dealers, just as private buyers, stand to lose the car and the money they paid for it if it later turns out to have finance against it. The only safeguard dealers have against putting their reputation and their business at risk, is to conduct a vehicle provenance check. Most provenance checks are backed by a Guarantee and the provider will negotiate with the finance house on behalf of the dealer. HPI holds details of over 7 million live finance interests, which represents in excess of 98% of the UK's motor finance market, making the HPI Check one of strongest defenses against finance fraud.

Jekyll and Hyde week for Axminster Town

Late Turner strike sees Hawkchurch United retain Bill Bailey Cup

South-West Peninsula League

(Tuesday, April 21st)

CREDITON UTD 2 AXMINSTER TOWN 7
IN-FORM striker Sam Dibling took his personal tally to six in his last three outings with a hat-trick in Axminster's mid-week thumping of Credition United.

Brad-Lee Miller's strike gave the Tigers a slender 1-0 lead at the interval. But the second-half was a goal bonanza as Dibling netted the next three.

Ben Vine also bagged a hat-trick for Ax who led 5-0 before the hosts staged a mini-fight back to reduce the arrears to 5-2. But Vine struck twice late on to complete the scoring.

AXMINSTER TOWN 0 EXETER UNI 7

WITH their new Tigers' Way Ground still to be completed Axminster Town's 'home' game on Saturday was reversed to the students' ground on Topsham Road.

And it proved to be tough afternoon for Ax who were given a first-half chasing and trudged off 6-0 behind. The Students added one more after the turnaround to complete an afternoon to forget for the Managerless Tigers.

Ax will look to give a positive response in Tonight's (Tuesday) trip to Exwick Villa, this is followed by the final game of what has been a difficult season, both on and off the field, on Friday (May 1st) when the team travels back to Topsham Road to take on the Exeter University students (6.30pm ko) once again.

◆ SIDMOUTH TOWN had no scheduled game on Saturday and now have two remaining fixtures: Away v Teignmouth (Saturday, May 2nd - 3pm ko) and Away v Tavistock (Monday, May 4th - 3pm ko).

Before then the Vikings will turn their attention to the Axminster Hospital Cup and a semi-final tie at Chard Town Reserves tonight (7.30pm ko). The winners will face Axminster Town in the final.

D & E reports Beer Albion 2 Chard Town Res 4 Premier Division

BEER slipped into the bottom three after a 4-2 home defeat by Chard Reserves.

The Fishermen were well in contention for 75 minutes but their makeshift back line were caught out in the last 15 minutes by the pace of the Robins' front men as the game opened up. Impressive striker James Boyland scored a hat-trick for Chard.

Beer were missing six first team regulars through injury, unavailability and suspension but the players who stepped up from the reserves all gave good accounts of themselves, particularly 2nd team player-manager Simon Smith who looked composed and assured at the higher level.

Beer started stronger but went behind on 22 minutes when Boyland nodded home from a corner.

The Fishermen notched a deserved equaliser on 35 minutes when a free kick from Josh Moughton was headed across goal by Richard Walker into the path of Jamial Iddi who in turn nodded home from close range.

Chard took the lead midway through the second half with a penalty after Beer defender Kieran Love handled unintentionally when the ball struck him from close range.

The Fishermen responded immediately equalising on 67 minutes through a header from substitute Robert Adkin - his first touch of the game.

Both sides were now pressing hard for a winner and as the spaces opened up, the play was end-to-end.

Chard went 3-2 in front after a fast break caught the home defence square. The visitors were now in control and sealed the game on 87 minutes.

Despite the disappointing result, the depleted Fishermen deserve credit for a spirited performance and their contribution to an entertaining contest.

Their final home game is the local derby against Seaton Town on Bank Holiday Monday (May 3rd) 3pm ko.

MIDWEEK NEWS

MONDAY, April 20th was certainly a memorable night in the history of HONITON TOWN Football club. The Hippos' first team clinched the Division One title with goals from Lewis Couch and Chris Long in a 2-0 win at Wellington.

At the same time Owen McCreadie-Taylor (2), Joe Dixon, Corey Couch, Luois Grant, Karl Allen, Ryan Dunn and Blake Freemantle scored in the Reserves' 8-0 drubbing of Priory which clinched promotion from Division Five.

Also on Monday, SEATON TOWN recorded a fine 4-1 win win at Chard Town Reserves. Playing up the Zembard Lane slope the Greens surged into a 3-0 half-time lead with goals from Seth Wakely (2) and Matt Hancock.

Wakely completed his hat-trick near the end before Kieran Bailey scrambled home an injury-time consolation for the hosts.

Lyme Regis 4 Axminster Town Res 0 Division Three

DEVON & Exeter League officials will have to decide if Wednesday's night's game at the Davey Fort is to be replayed as the match was abandoned after 80 minutes with The Seaside's leading 4-0.

Earlier on in the 10th minute an accidental collision between the Tigers' Dan Beer and Lyme keeper Chris Higgs left Beer with a head injury and blood pouring from his mouth.

With the substitution made the game, played in front of a crowd of 120, continued and Lyme took the lead when Kingsley Wellman was adjudged to have fouled Joe Bond who dusted himself down and rolled the resulting penalty past stand-in keeper Ben Vine.

Bond turned provider on the half hour crossing for Dec Ellis to make it 2-0.

Ellis twice outpaced the Ax defence early in the second-half to complete his hat-trick before the players were forced to vacate the field to allow the Devon Air Ambulance to land and whisk Beer off to Bristol Hospital.

After examination the midfielder, who was playing just his third match since breaking his leg back in August, was found to have broken his jaw in two places but had fortunately suffered no spinal damage.

League officials were set to meet to decide if the result should stand.

Lyme Regis held a raffle at their Davey Fort Ground on Saturday with all profits to be presented to the injured Beer who was released from hospital after an operation on Friday.

D&E LEAGUE ROUND-UP

with Collin Goodwin

TWO more championships were decided this weekend with FLUXTON winning Division 5 and CULM UNITED capturing the Division 8 title.

Fluxton had to win their last match at SANDFORD to overtake leaders HONITON TOWN and they did it in style with goals from Si Durrant 2, Nathan Devereux, Matt Clothier-Smith, Alex Paget and a spectacular OG in a 6-0 victory.

Culm were 3-1 winners against OTTERTY ST MARY and with WELLINGTON TOWN held to a draw at TEDBURN ST MARY the Magelake team could celebrate.

Premier leaders TIVERTON TOWN suffered a shock 4-1 reverse in midweek at THORVERTON, but recovered to win 4-1 at WILLAND ROVERS. Luke Mortimer, Tom Tricker, Richard Groom and Dave O'Connor scored for the yellows who will be champions if they do not lose to FENITON on Wednesday evening at Ladysmead.

HATHERLEIGH TOWN won 3-2 at HEAVITREE UNITED less than a week after their initial meeting was abandoned. Heavitree scorers were Elliot Wells and Liam Mallett.

CHARD TOWN were 4-2 winners at BEER ALBION with James Boyland getting a hat-trick and Braeden Symes the other.

Tom Perryman netted the consolation as new Division One champions HONITON TOWN were beaten 3-1 at home by EXWICK VILLA.

NEWTON ST CYRES currently occupying second spot were 2-0 winners at home to LYMPSTONE, Nathan Guppy and Sam Johnstone scoring.

CLYST VALLEY beaten just once this year, ran riot against the UNIVERSITY 14-0 with four players getting hat-tricks, Chris Elliot, Josh Barlow, Elliot Weeks and manager Jon Veale. Dan Holman and Martin Porter also scored.

UPOTTERY are getting ever closer to the Division Three title following their 2-1 victory against their biggest rivals EXETER UNIVERSITY. Joe Jones and Danny Symons were the Upottery marksmen.

LYME REGIS were assured of runners up in Division 3 after EXMOUTH TOWN were held to a 1-1 draw at the UNIVERSITY and will finish third.

Division Six leaders KENTISBEARE received another setback to their title hopes held to a 2-2 draw at WOODBURY, which means OTTERTY ST MARY draw level on points after they defeated SILVERTON 6-0.

BILL BAILEY CUP FINAL

Hawkchurch Utd 2 Merriott Dyn 1

Thursday, April 23rd - at Beaminster

HAWKCHURCH United came from behind to retain the Bill Bailey Cup at the Memorial Ground on Thursday evening.

The opening 20 minutes saw both teams sparring for superiority with the Hawks just shading possession writes Howard Larcombe.

However, it was the Dynamos who struck first when experienced skipper Barry Hayne, who was clearly injured and far from fit, lofted a ball over a Hawkchurch defence which was caught too square and Steve Jennings showed good composure to lob home over onrushing goalkeeper James Mitcham.

Play immediately switched to the other end and Jack Larcombe saw his goal bound free-kick deflected wide after Ash Larcombe had been booked for a foul on the influential Gavin Herrod.

Cobwebs cleared and greens opened in bright sunshine

◆ OFF WE GO: Club President Rex Corbet bowled the first wood to officially open South Petherton's green last week. The club held a 'spider' competition for a bottle of whiskey which was won by Gerald Meecham, there then followed a traditional match between the President's and Club Captain Lawrence Symes' teams. The President's team won 77-67.

Kevin Hamilton, who went the season without losing a game in the Tuesday Triples, recorded a perfect score. In the Wednesday evening rinks three teams had the same score of 24 points each so the result was decided on shot difference.

The culmination of the evening was the club celebration for the ladies who won the national title - a commemorative bottle of champagne was presented to each player.

◆ The previous weekend the club held its annual tournament for 16 teams kindly sponsored by Snows Toyota.

The Honiton quartet of Trevor Pipe, Yvonne Rayner, Steve & Lynda Dommett took the first prize of £160. Teams from South Hams came second and third with Madeira fourth. Noy so lucky that weekend were the Honiton ladies playing for Devon in the national inter-county final. Carole Binmore did extremely well to skip Devon's only winning rink as the Yorkshire Puddings beat the Devon Dumplings to the title.

◆ County Champion: Scott Eveleigh (17) achieved his dream by winning the Devon County Indoor Bowling Association Under 21 title recently. Playing in sets and level after two, Scott had to play a tie-break against his opponent Steve Apsey of Axminster.

On the last end of the tie break, Scott drew a back toucher to win the game and lift the trophy.

◆ COUNTY CHAMP: Scott Eveleigh receives the Devon U21 trophy from County Secretary Derek Viles.

Cricketing circles mourn Frank Huddy

THE local sporting community was greatly saddened this week to hear of the death of Frank Huddy, a stalwart and former captain of Chardstock Cricket Club.

Known affectionately as FR, Mr Huddy was extremely popular in cricketing circles in East Devon and South Somerset.

Mr Huddy ran the Double H entertainment agency in Chard and was a popular musician with the Tony Graham Combo.

A date for his funeral service has yet to be fixed but the family have asked for no dark clothes. Arrangements will be handled by B. Gibbs Funeral Director (01460 66100).

Mr Huddy is survived by his wife Jean and children Wesley and Georgia.

Seaton crowned champs

WITH just one point separating first and second place in the Exeter & District Division 2 under 16 Divisionist all came down to Sunday's last game of the season. Broadclyst had finished with 42 leaving Seaton needing to beat Witheridge to clinch the title.

Lewis Cottam put the Greens ahead and they never looked back with Joe Urquhart Max Richardson, skipper Ollie Binion (2, 1pen) and Tony Plnder also on target.

The team's manager Andrew Franklin, who is retiring after 10 years at the helm, said: "To win the title and score more than 100 goals in the process is a wonderful way for the boys to end their time in youth football. "Big thanks to all players and supporters."

Devine-Wright smashes coast time

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Rutter

JAMES Trewick and Shaun Denslow lined up on the start of the World's third largest marathon alongside 56,000 runners on the Champs-Elysees, Paris, in glorious sunshine in their first ever races over the distance.

For Shaun, it was a race of two halves. Full of strong running in the ever increasing temperatures up to the half way marker, however ankle ligament damage sustained playing football two weeks earlier hampered his progress throughout the second half of the race.

Determined to get to the finish, cheers of "Allez Shaun" from the Parisian crowd helped him battle his way through a wall of pain at mile 23, to finish strongly in 4:29:22, and 27,230th place.

For James the race was far less eventful, he passed through the half way mark in 1:37. By mile 20 James was finding it much harder to sustain the pace.

Four miles from the finish the yellow flag above the head of the 3:15 pacer loomed over his shoulder, providing a temporary target to follow.

James stuck to him like glue until 25 miles, when inch by inch he just started getting away. The last mile was a slog, with James finally finishing in 3:15:46 and 3,011th place – a superb marathon debut.

The Juniors are constantly improving and to proved the point once again as all the top five finishers in the April Junior handicap produced PB's.

Caitlin Smith was the winner, 13:34, followed by Ollie Brown, 13:09; Flo Swan, 12:26; Will Watson, 13:25 and Oliver Rodger, 11:56. Flo Swann is a clear leader in the Junior rankings with 61 points with Oliver Rodger 2nd, 47 and Ollie Brown 3rd, 44 points.

Robert Kerr was the victor in the longer Senior handicap in 31:17 followed by Craig Tiley, 26:28; Alan Morbey, 26:22; Luke Reed, 20:37 and Eleanor Wood, 24:36. Clare Hansford still leads the Senior rankings with 71 points, way ahead of Gavin Warren, and Margaret Pearce both on 46.

Three AVR's tackled Taunton Park run last Saturday which is one of a national network of weekly, free, timed 5k runs.

Carol Austin paced Lesley Adams to a new personal best of 27:59: a minute faster than her previous best and Angela Kerr finished in 25:49 which put her first in her age group.

A brilliant sunny morning greeted those running the Honiton Hippo - a multi-terrain 7.4 mile race with three deep water traps and two crossings of the River Otter.

First back for AVR and winning the V50 category was Dominic Schneiders 18th, 1:00:30 followed by Eleanor Wood 29th 1:03:28 winning FV55 class. Close behind was an in-form Clare Hansford 31st 1:04:11 winning FV45 lady.

Jack Dixon was 39th 1:06:12, Stephen Morbey 52nd 1:09:57 closely followed by his father Alan Morbey 53rd 1:10:07 and Margaret Pearce 58th 1:10:42.

Chris Hill was 71st 1:14:24, Andy Sayers 87th 1:17:43, Yvette Hill 108th 1:21:38 and Gillian Peach 112th 1:23:01.

In the 3K Hippo Calf Oliver Rodger was a very creditable 2nd 12:09 and ◆ Patrick Devine-Wright completed his South West Coast Path run on the afternoon of Tuesday, April 21st in a new record time of 14 days, 8 hours and 2 minutes.

The 630 mile trail, which has 115,000 feet of vertical climb, begins in Minehead in Somerset and finishes at Poole Harbour in Dorset.

It was an epic run in exceptionally dry and often sunny weather conditions, often into strong, cold headwinds.

Having picked up foot blisters and knee injuries early on, the run was exceptionally challenging and hugely exhausting.

More of Patrick's remarkable achievement in next week's Pulman's View Sport.

A complete contrast to running the Coast Path was found in the form of the Virgin London Marathon. No countryside views here, but 26.2 miles of unrelenting city street pounding interspersed with views of the iconic London sights.

It is a dream of runners to beat 3:30 for this challenge, but to smash 3:30 when you are way over 65 years of age is just superb. AVR's Graham Newton did just that as he completed in 3:21:04, 4,503rd overall out of over 38,000 and ninth in his age category.

This was 12 mins faster than last year and he is sure to have raised a lot of money for Starlight to help terminally sick children.

Roger Bramley also had a fine run; he was 9,115th in 3:43:50. Michelle Dobson was 27,469th, 4:54:13 and Fiona Pyle 33,803rd, 5:39:13.

FOR the second week running Beer Blazers were on the wrong end of a very close encounter, going down to a single goal defeat 75-56 at the hands of Swagger Mamas. Lily Simpson was the Swaggers' star whilst Helen French stole the show for Beer.

Uplowman, with Vicky Channings playing well, held on to their early top spot with a close 54-50 victory against Tip Top Trees. Jess Jeffery played well for the Trees.

POOL B

UNDEFEATED Sidmouth Toucan Chicks have got off to a good start in their debut season. After a draw against Flamings last week they went one better with a 71-55 win against Blackdown Ladies. They established a lead by half way and never looked back thanks to good work from Zoe Kissen.

Flamings also recorded a victory when they defeated Ford & Pentecost Panthers 46-39. By half way Flamings had edged in front thanks to good work from Sonia Yorke and they then built on this although Anna Benson worked hard for the Panthers.

Hi Q also bounced back from an opening day defeat when they beat JD Tyres 43-26. With Bev Parris playing well Hi Q had grabbed the lead by half way and although JD worked hard, with Julie Norman doing well, the Tyres could not get back.

Howden Hawks met Pixies in both teams' opening game and it was Hawks who came back from a starting deficit of 10 goals to take the points with a 60-43 win.

◆ GREAT HAUL: ONE hundred and thirteen anglers took part in the recent 43rd Chesil Championships on the famous Dorset beach. Organized by the West Bay Sea Angling Group this event always attracts a good entry from the South coast of England. This year's six-hour long event was won by Terry Hartnell, a member of both Honiton and Beer & District sea angling clubs. Hartnell weighed in four plaice for a total weight of 1.60 kilos (3.5lbs) this was enough to land the £250 first prize. Pictured above are Terry Hartnell (centre) collecting his award from sponsors Chris Chapple (right) of Seaton Angling Centre and Nathan Cox of Rod Rings and Things. Casting tuition and practice run by the England casting team member and Manager Dennis Retter has started on Wednesday evenings at Honiton SAC.
